JOB DESCRIPTION

Position: El Pomar Summer Intern

Job Classification: Full-time, non-exempt
Monday through Friday, 40 hours per week from May until July

Hourly Wage: $16.00 per hour

Benefits: Paid holiday and sick time

JOB DESCRIPTION:
El Pomar’s Internship is a unique paid summer program that introduces continuing undergraduate students to the philanthropic sector and provides an opportunity to develop professional interests and skills. Interns serve an important role by providing support for the Foundation’s grant making programs and offices. They receive assignments based upon the Foundation’s needs and the Interns’ interests. Interns participate in a professional development series which builds skills and provides insight into working in a professional atmosphere. While each Intern fulfills an individual role, they also receive meaningful interaction with their Internship class and Fellows. Applicants should demonstrate strong verbal and written communication skills, organization and time management skills and a willingness to learn.

POTENTIAL OPPORTUNITIES:

Investment Intern
The Investment Intern will work in El Pomar’s Investment Office, which manages El Pomar’s endowment. The Investment Intern’s responsibilities may include:

- Processing stock market trades and assisting with weekly market updates
- Attending money manager meetings
- Managing and archiving documents for the Investment and Accounting offices
- Developing curriculum for and leading Internship Investment Challenge classes
- Assisting the Chief Investment Officer as needed, including preparing presentations

Applicants should demonstrate an interest in investments, finance or business.

Communications Intern
The Communications Intern will work with El Pomar’s communications team to tell the story of the Foundation through El Pomar’s website, blog, social media and collateral as well as through video, media relations and newsletters. The Communications Intern’s responsibilities may include:

- Updating El Pomar collateral
- Curating and managing El Pomar’s blog, website and social media
- Writing and distributing newsletters, media advisories, press releases and other promotional materials
- Updating El Pomar’s brand standards
- Reviewing and presenting analytics of El Pomar Communication media

Applicants should demonstrate a basic knowledge of communications principles and practices, professional writing skills, social media and familiarity with web-based content and design software.

Program Interns
Program opportunities allow Interns to assist with several El Pomar programs—past programs included: Regional Partnerships, Alumni Relations, Awards for Excellence, Fellowship Recruiting, Forum for Civic Advancement and Elevating Leadership Development. Projects may include:
- Assisting with preparation for upcoming events including Regional Partnerships Staff Retreat, Statewide Meeting, Awards for Excellence ceremony and Milton E. Proby Award ceremony
- Updating databases and research materials and compiling survey results for conferences
- Supporting video production for Awards for Excellence, including drafting interview questions and compiling video footage
- Developing and presenting a staff forum on a relevant civic engagement topic
- Managing and updating the Fellowship Alumni database and assisting with the management of El Pomar’s alumni network and social media
- Producing content for the alumni newsletter and supporting distribution
- Researching best practices and opportunities for Fellowship Recruiting, including career fairs, online recruiting tools and other hiring strategies
- Designing collateral for Statewide Meeting and assisting with creating of Regional Partnerships newsletter

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
Examples of Professional Development include:
- Public Speaking
- Investment classes
- Introduction to grant making
- Leadership development topics
- Networking opportunities and practice

Professional Development is tailored to suit the skills and interests of each internship class.
