The following document is a collection of nine press releases sent by El Pomar Foundation to media outlets in rural regions across Colorado in January 2023. The press releases highlight grants approved at El Pomar’s December 2022 Trustee meeting.

Founded by Spencer and Julie Penrose in 1937, El Pomar Foundation has an established legacy of general purpose grant making throughout the state of Colorado. The competitive process remains the Foundation’s primary vehicle for organizations to receive funding, which accepts applications on a rolling basis. Additionally, over the last 80 years, El Pomar has either developed or been entrusted with the stewardship of a number of other funds, as well as presenting Trustee merit grants. Since 2003, El Pomar’s Regional Partnerships program has also provided invaluable support to 11 regions encompassing the entire state of Colorado, representing all 64 counties, led by more than 70 community leaders on regional councils, in an effort to increase impact and establish connections throughout the state.

For more information about El Pomar’s grant making, please visit our website or contact Erin Hannan, Vice President of Communications, with specific questions about these announcements at ehanann@elpomar.org.
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

El Pomar Foundation approves $73,000 to organizations in the Central Peaks region

Colorado Springs, Colo.—January 19, 2023—El Pomar Trustees approved $73,000 allocated to five nonprofit organizations and government entities in the Central Peaks region at the Foundation’s December Trustees meeting. Through the Foundation’s grant making process, the following organizations were awarded grants:

- Custer County Search and Rescue, Inc. (Westcliffe) — $5,000 for emergency response vehicle equipment; Wildland Fire Fund
- Far View Horse Rescue (Fairplay) — $3,000 for direct care of equines; Sally Beck Fund
- Southern Park Country Fire Protection District (Guffey) — $7,500 for wildland firefighting equipment; Wildland Fire Fund
- Summit Habitat for Humanity (Silverthorne) — $50,000 for Park County workforce housing; regional council ($25,000), competitive ($25,000)
- Wet Mountain Fire Protection District (Westcliffe) — $7,500 for wildland firefighting equipment; Wildland Fire Fund

Founded by Spencer and Julie Penrose in 1937, El Pomar Foundation has an established legacy of general purpose grant making. The competitive process remains the Foundation’s primary vehicle for organizations to receive funding. Additionally, over the last 85 years, El Pomar has either developed or been entrusted with the stewardship of a number of other funds, as well as presenting merit grants in each region recommended by Trustees and regional council members. Competitive applications are accepted on a rolling basis.

In an effort to increase impact and establish connections across the entire state, the Regional Partnerships program was established in 2003. Each of the Foundation’s 11 regional councils advises El Pomar Trustees and recommends grants to help support its communities. The Central Peaks Regional Council recommends grants in Chaffee, Custer, Fremont and Park Counties. Council members are regional leaders in the business, nonprofit and public sectors and provide first-hand information about current needs in their own communities.

The Sally Beck Fund supports organizations providing direct care to equines, therapeutic riding programs, equine education programs and equine-related disaster response programs.

The Wildland Fire Fund assists with immediate emergency needs of volunteer firefighting agencies and first responders throughout the state of Colorado. Started in 2002 in response to the Hayman Fire, the Wildland Fire Fund has awarded more than $6 million in grants over 20 years.

To view a full listing of El Pomar’s funds and grant making areas, please visit our website at https://www.elpomar.org/grant-making/
El Pomar Foundation is one of the largest and oldest private foundations in Colorado. El Pomar contributes approximately $25 million annually through grants in the areas of arts and culture, civic and community initiatives, education, health and human services, as well as community stewardship and leadership development programs to support Colorado nonprofit organizations. Spencer and Julie Penrose founded El Pomar in 1937 with the mission to enhance, encourage and promote the current and future well-being of the people of Colorado.

###
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

El Pomar Foundation approves $33,500 to organizations in the High Country region

Colorado Springs, Colo.—January 19, 2023—El Pomar Trustees approved $33,500 allocated to five nonprofit organizations and government entities in the High Country region at the Foundation’s December Trustees meeting. Through the Foundation’s grant making process, the following organizations were awarded grants:

- Aspen Youth Center — $5,000 in general operating support; competitive
- Bravo Colorado at Vail – Beaver Creek — $6,000 for the Music Makers Haciendo Música Program; competitive
- Project Support (Idaho Springs) — $10,000 for restoration of the senior center; competitive
- Red, White and Blue Fire Protection District (Breckenridge) — $7,500 for new radios and chainsaw; Wildland Fire Fund
- Summit Fire & EMS Fire Protection District (Frisco) — $5,000 for new radios; Wildland Fire Fund

Founded by Spencer and Julie Penrose in 1937, El Pomar Foundation has an established legacy of general purpose grant making. The competitive process remains the Foundation’s primary vehicle for organizations to receive funding. Additionally, over the last 85 years, El Pomar has either developed or been entrusted with the stewardship of a number of other funds, as well as presenting merit grants in each region recommended by Trustees and regional council members. Competitive applications are accepted on a rolling basis.

The Wildland Fire Fund assists with immediate emergency needs of volunteer firefighting agencies and first responders throughout the state of Colorado. Started in 2002 in response to the Hayman Fire, the Wildland Fire Fund has awarded more than $6 million in grants over 20 years.

To view a full listing of El Pomar’s funds and grant making areas, please visit our website at https://www.elpomar.org/grant-making/

El Pomar Foundation is one of the largest and oldest private foundations in Colorado. El Pomar contributes approximately $25 million annually through grants in the areas of arts and culture, civic and community initiatives, education health and human services, as well as community stewardship and leadership development programs to support Colorado nonprofit organizations. Spencer and Julie Penrose founded El Pomar in 1937 with the mission to enhance, encourage and promote the current and future well-being of the people of Colorado.

###
El Pomar Foundation approves $55,000 to organizations in the North region

Colorado Springs, Colo.—January 19, 2023—El Pomar Trustees approved $55,000 allocated to eight nonprofit organizations in the North region at the Foundation’s December Trustees meeting. Through the Foundation’s grant making process, the following organizations were awarded grants:

- Boulder Emergency Squad — $7,500 for mobile radios; Wildland Fire Fund
- Happiness Through Horses (Fort Lupton) — $2,500 for direct care of equines; Sally Beck Fund
- Meals on Wheels for Fort Collins, Colorado, Inc. — $10,000 in general operating support; competitive
- Meals on Wheels of Boulder, Inc. — $10,000 in general operating support; competitive
- Medicine Horse Program (Boulder) — $2,500 for direct care of equines; Sally Back Fund
- Outreach United Resource Center, Inc. (Longmont) — $10,000 in general operating support; competitive
- Street Dog Coalition (Fort Collins) — $2,500 for veterinary street clinics in Colorado; Hambrick Fund
- Windsor Severance Fire Protection District — $10,000 for personal protective equipment; Wildland Fire Fund

Founded by Spencer and Julie Penrose in 1937, El Pomar Foundation has an established legacy of general purpose grant making. The competitive process remains the Foundation's primary vehicle for organizations to receive funding. Additionally, over the last 85 years, El Pomar has either developed or been entrusted with the stewardship of a number of other funds, as well as presenting merit grants in each region recommended by Trustees and regional council members. Competitive applications are accepted on a rolling basis.

The Freda Hambrick Fund supports nonprofit organizations that prevent cruelty to animals, provide direct care and medical assistance, and offer educational programs for the proper care of and attention to animals within the state of Colorado.

The Sally Beck Fund supports organizations providing direct care to equines, therapeutic riding programs, equine education programs, and equine-related disaster response programs.

The Wildland Fire Fund assists with immediate emergency needs of volunteer firefighting agencies and first responders throughout the state of Colorado. Started in 2002 in response to the Hayman Fire, the Wildland Fire Fund has awarded more than $6 million in grants over 20 years.

To view a full listing of El Pomar’s funds and grant making areas, please visit our website at https://www.elpomar.org/grant-making/
El Pomar Foundation is one of the largest and oldest private foundations in Colorado. El Pomar contributes approximately $25 million annually through grants in the areas of arts and culture, civic and community initiatives, education, health and human services, as well as community stewardship and leadership development programs to support Colorado nonprofit organizations. Spencer and Julie Penrose founded El Pomar in 1937 with the mission to enhance, encourage and promote the current and future well-being of the people of Colorado.

###
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information, contact:
Erin Hannan, Vice President of Communications
719-577-5750 or ehannan@elpomar.org

El Pomar Foundation approves $45,000 to organizations in the Northeast region

Colorado Springs, Colo.—January 19, 2023—El Pomar Trustees approved $45,000 allocated to five nonprofit organizations and government entities in the Northeast region at the Foundation’s December Trustees meeting. Through the Foundation’s grant making process, the following organizations were awarded grants:

- Break the Silence, Inc. (Fort Morgan) — $15,000 for Morgan County outreach; regional council
- Kit Carson Rural Development — $15,000 for affordable housing installation; regional council
- Logan County (Sterling) — $5,000 for the TravelStorys project; regional council
- S.A.R.A., Inc. (Fort Morgan) — $5,000 in general operating support; competitive
- Sedgwick County Economic Development Corporation (Julesburg) — $5,000 for the Golden Plains BEST robotics team; regional council

Founded by Spencer and Julie Penrose in 1937, El Pomar Foundation has an established legacy of general purpose grant making. The competitive process remains the Foundation’s primary vehicle for organizations to receive funding. Additionally, over the last 85 years, El Pomar has either developed or been entrusted with the stewardship of a number of other funds, as well as presenting merit grants in each region recommended by Trustees and regional council members. Competitive applications are accepted on a rolling basis.

In an effort to increase impact and establish connections across the entire state, the Regional Partnerships program was established in 2003. Each of the Foundation’s 11 regional councils advises El Pomar Trustees and recommends grants to help support its communities. The Northeast Regional Council recommends grants in Cheyenne, Kit Carson, Lincoln, Logan, Morgan, Philips, Sedgwick, Washington and Yuma Counties. Council members are regional leaders in the business, nonprofit, and public sectors and provide first-hand information about current needs in their own communities.

To view a full listing of El Pomar’s funds and grant making areas, please visit our website at https://www.elpomar.org/grant-making/

El Pomar Foundation is one of the largest and oldest private foundations in Colorado. El Pomar contributes approximately $25 million annually through grants in the areas of arts and culture, civic and community initiatives, education, health and human services, as well as community stewardship and leadership development programs to support Colorado nonprofit organizations. Spencer and Julie Penrose founded El Pomar in 1937 with the mission to enhance, encourage and promote the current and future well-being of the people of Colorado.

###
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

El Pomar Foundation approves $57,500 to organizations in the Northwest region

Colorado Springs, Colo.—January 19, 2023—El Pomar Trustees approved $57,500 allocated to 10 nonprofit organizations and government entities in the Northwest region at the Foundation’s December Trustees meeting. Through the Foundation’s grant making process, the following organizations were awarded grants:

- Colorado River Fire Protection District (Rifle) — $10,000 for new radios; Wildland Fire Fund
- Eagles Nest Early Learning Center (Black Hawk) — $5,000 in general operating support; competitive
- Northwest Colorado Community Health Partnership (Steamboat Springs) — $5,000 in general operating support; competitive
- Partners in Routt County (Steamboat Springs) — $5,000 in general operating support; competitive
- Rangely Food Bank, Inc. — $5,000 in general operating support; competitive
- Roaring Fork Recovery Support Center (Carbondale) — $2,500 in general operating support; competitive
- Roundup River Ranch (Avon) — $2,500 for participants from the Northwest Region; regional merit
- Steamboat Training Adaptive Recreational Sports — $2,500 for direct care of equines in equine therapy program; Sally Beck Fund
- Yampa River Botanic Park Society (Steamboat Springs) — $10,000 for accessibility improvements; competitive
- Yampa Valley Performing Arts Council (Steamboat Springs) — $10,000 for the Strawberry Park Amphitheater; competitive

Founded by Spencer and Julie Penrose in 1937, El Pomar Foundation has an established legacy of general purpose grant making. The competitive process remains the Foundation’s primary vehicle for organizations to receive funding. Additionally, over the last 85 years, El Pomar has either developed or been entrusted with the stewardship of a number of other funds, as well as presenting merit grants in each region recommended by Trustees and regional council members. Competitive applications are accepted on a rolling basis.

The Sally Beck Fund supports organizations providing direct care to equines, therapeutic riding programs, equine education programs and equine-related disaster response programs.

The Wildland Fire Fund assists with immediate emergency needs of volunteer firefighting agencies and first responders throughout the state of Colorado. Started in 2002 in response to the Hayman Fire, the Wildland Fire Fund has awarded more than $6 million in grants over 20 years.
To view a full listing of El Pomar’s funds and grant making areas, please visit our website at https://www.elpomar.org/grant-making/

El Pomar Foundation is one of the largest and oldest private foundations in Colorado. El Pomar contributes approximately $25 million annually through grants in the areas of arts and culture, civic and community initiatives, education health and human services, as well as community stewardship and leadership development programs to support Colorado nonprofit organizations. Spencer and Julie Penrose founded El Pomar in 1937 with the mission to enhance, encourage and promote the current and future well-being of the people of Colorado.

###
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

El Pomar Foundation approves $278,500 to organizations in the San Juan region

Colorado Springs, Colo.—January 19, 2023—El Pomar Trustees approved $278,500 allocated to 11 nonprofit organizations and government entities in the San Juan region at the Foundation’s December Trustees meeting. Through the Foundation’s grant making process, the following organizations were awarded grants:

- Black Canyon Boys & Girls Club, Inc. (Montrose) — $25,000 for new building and renovations; competitive
- Blue Sage Center (Paonia) — $5,000 in general operating support; competitive
- Bright Futures (Telluride) — $150,000 for pyramid coaching and training system expansion; regional council
- Delta County Public Library Trust and Endowment, Inc. (Hotchkiss) — $25,000 for new library entrepreneur and maker center; competitive
- Dream Catcher Therapy Center, Inc. (Olathe) — $7,500 for direct care of equines; Sally Beck Fund
- Friends of the Ouray Public Library, Inc. — $5,000 for youth mental health programming; regional council
- Montrose County Senior Citizens Transportation, Inc. — $10,000 in general operating support; competitive
- Montrose Recreation District — $25,000 for Flex Rec facility; competitive
- Pinion Ridge Ranch, Inc. (Montrose) — $1,000 for direct care of equines; Sally Beck Fund
- Project Hope of Gunnison Valley — $5,000 in general operating support; competitive
- The Learning Council (Paonia) — $20,000 for kitchen remodel and upgrades; competitive

Founded by Spencer and Julie Penrose in 1937, El Pomar Foundation has an established legacy of general purpose grant making. The competitive process remains the Foundation’s primary vehicle for organizations to receive funding. Additionally, over the last 85 years, El Pomar has either developed or been entrusted with the stewardship of a number of other funds, as well as presenting merit grants in each region recommended by Trustees and regional council members. Competitive applications are accepted on a rolling basis.

In an effort to increase impact and establish connections across the entire state, the Regional Partnerships program was established in 2003. Each of the Foundation’s 11 regional councils advises El Pomar Trustees and recommends grants to help support its communities. The San Juan Regional Council recommends grants in Delta, Gunnison, Hinsdale, Montrose, San Miguel and Ouray Counties. Council members are regional leaders in the business, nonprofit, and public sectors and provide first-hand information about current needs in their own communities.

The Sally Beck Fund supports organizations providing direct care to equines, therapeutic riding programs, equine education programs and equine-related disaster response programs.
To view a full listing of El Pomar's funds and grant making areas, please visit our website at https://www.elpomar.org/grant-making/

El Pomar Foundation is one of the largest and oldest private foundations in Colorado. El Pomar contributes approximately $25 million annually through grants in the areas of arts and culture, civic and community initiatives, education, health and human services, as well as community stewardship and leadership development programs to support Colorado nonprofit organizations. Spencer and Julie Penrose founded El Pomar in 1937 with the mission to enhance, encourage and promote the current and future well-being of the people of Colorado.

###
El Pomar Foundation approves $183,000 to organizations in the San Luis Valley region

Colorado Springs, Colo.—January 19, 2023—El Pomar Trustees approved $183,000 allocated to eight nonprofit organizations in the San Luis Valley at the Foundation’s December Trustees meeting. Through the Foundation’s grant making process, the following organizations were awarded grants:

- Boys and Girls Clubs of the San Luis Valley, Inc. (Alamosa) — $18,000 for bathroom and kitchen remodel; regional council
- Colorado Professional Golfers Association Foundation, Inc. (Larkspur) — $50,000 for PGA REACH Colorado Golf in schools; competitive
- GripTape, Inc. (Alamosa) — $15,000 in general operating support; competitive
- High Valley Community Center, Inc. (Del Norte) — $2,500 for sports programs; Hybl Fund
- Mt. Carmel Veterans Service Center (Colorado Springs) — $60,000 in San Luis Valley general operating support; competitive
- Rio Grande Child Development Center & Family Services (Del Norte) — $20,000 for facility renovations; competitive
- San Luis Valley Behavioral Health Group, Inc. (Alamosa) — $15,000 for co-pay program; regional council
- Woman’s Citizenship Club of Alamosa — $2,500 for “Into Thin Air” monument; competitive

Founded by Spencer and Julie Penrose in 1937, El Pomar Foundation has an established legacy of general purpose grant making. The competitive process remains the Foundation’s primary vehicle for organizations to receive funding. Additionally, over the last 85 years, El Pomar has either developed or been entrusted with the stewardship of a number of other funds, as well as presenting merit grants in each region recommended by Trustees and regional council members. Competitive applications are accepted on a rolling basis.

In an effort to increase impact and establish connections across the entire state, the Regional Partnerships program was established in 2003. Each of the Foundation’s 11 regional councils advises El Pomar Trustees and recommends grants to help support its communities. The San Luis Valley Regional Council recommends grants in Alamosa, Conejos, Costilla, Mineral, Rio Grande and Saguache Counties. Council members are regional leaders in the business, nonprofit, and public sectors and provide first-hand information about current needs in their own communities.

The William J. Hybl Fund supports Olympic, Paralympic and youth sports. Bill Hybl, a lifetime public servant, has long been dedicated to amateur sport. Currently chairman of the United State Olympic Endowment, he believes the ideals of excellence, fair play and hard work are important for athletes as well as children.
To view a full listing of El Pomar’s funds and grant making areas, please visit our website at https://www.elpomar.org/grant-making/

El Pomar Foundation is one of the largest and oldest private foundations in Colorado. El Pomar contributes approximately $25 million annually through grants in the areas of arts and culture, civic and community initiatives, education, health and human services, as well as community stewardship and leadership development programs to support Colorado nonprofit organizations. Spencer and Julie Penrose founded El Pomar in 1937 with the mission to enhance, encourage and promote the current and future well-being of the people of Colorado.

###
El Pomar Foundation approves $152,500 to organizations in the Southeast region

Colorado Springs, Colo.—January 19, 2023— El Pomar Trustees approved $152,500 allocated to nine nonprofit organizations and government entities in the Southeast region at the Foundation’s December Trustees meeting. Through the Foundation’s grant making process, the following organizations were awarded grants:

- Blue Rose Ranch, Inc. (Springfield) — $7,500 for direct care of equines; Sally Beck Fund
- Church of the Ascension & Holy Trinity (Pueblo) — $8,000 for community laundry and shower program; regional council
- Las Animas – Bent County Library District — $7,500 for accessible library circulation desk; competitive
- Learning Source (Lakewood) — $45,000 for Pueblo English language acquisition program; regional council ($30,000), competitive ($15,000)
- Mt. Carmel Health, Wellness & Community Center (Trinidad) — $20,000 for food box program; regional council
- Prairie Pines (Eads) — $5,000 for facility renovation; competitive
- Pueblo Rescue Mission — $30,000 in general operating support; competitive
- West Park Fire Protection District (Pueblo) — $4,500 for new wildland hoses; Wildland Fire Fund
- William J. Palmer Parks Foundation, Inc. (Colorado Springs) — $25,000 for Bessemer farmland conservation project; regional council

Founded by Spencer and Julie Penrose in 1937, El Pomar Foundation has an established legacy of general purpose grant making. The competitive process remains the Foundation’s primary vehicle for organizations to receive funding. Additionally, over the last 85 years, El Pomar has either developed or been entrusted with the stewardship of a number of other funds, as well as presenting merit grants in each region recommended by Trustees and regional council members. Competitive applications are accepted on a rolling basis.

In an effort to increase impact and establish connections across the entire state, the Regional Partnerships program was established in 2003. Each of the Foundation’s 11 regional councils advises El Pomar Trustees and recommends grants to help support its communities. The Southeast Regional Council recommends grants in Baca, Bent, Crowley, Huerfano, Kiowa, Las Animas, Otero, Pueblo and Prowers Counties. Council members are regional leaders in the business, nonprofit, and public sectors and provide first-hand information about current needs in their own communities.

The Sally Beck Fund supports organizations providing direct care to equines, therapeutic riding programs, equine education programs and equine-related disaster response programs.
The Wildland Fire Fund assists with immediate emergency needs of volunteer firefighting agencies and first responders throughout the state of Colorado. Started in 2002 in response to the Hayman Fire, the Wildland Fire Fund has awarded more than $6 million in grants over 20 years.

To view a full listing of El Pomar's funds and grant making areas, please visit our website at https://www.elpomar.org/grant-making/

El Pomar Foundation is one of the largest and oldest private foundations in Colorado. El Pomar contributes approximately $25 million annually through grants in the areas of arts and culture, civic and community initiatives, education, health and human services, as well as community stewardship and leadership development programs to support Colorado nonprofit organizations. Spencer and Julie Penrose founded El Pomar in 1937 with the mission to enhance, encourage and promote the current and future well-being of the people of Colorado.

###
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

El Pomar Foundation approves $40,000 to organizations in the Southwest region

Colorado Springs, Colo.—January 19, 2023—El Pomar Trustees approved $40,000 allocated to six nonprofit organizations and government entities in the Southwest region at the Foundation’s December Trustees meeting. Through the Foundation’s grant making process, the following organizations were awarded grants:

- Bridge Emergency Shelter (Cortez) — $5,000 in general operating support; competitive
- Dolores County (Dove Creek) — $10,000 in Dolores County Senior Services general operating support; competitive
- Fort Lewis Mesa Fire Protection District (Hesperus) — $10,000 for personal protective equipment and tools; Wildland Fire Fund
- Medicine Horse center – Therapeutic Riding & Equine Rehabilitation (Mancos) — $5,000 for direct care of equines; Sally Beck Fund
- Mesa Verde Foundation (Arvada) — $5,000 in general operating support; competitive
- Montezuma Land Conservancy (Cortez) — $5,000 in general operating; competitive

Founded by Spencer and Julie Penrose in 1937, El Pomar Foundation has an established legacy of general purpose grant making. The competitive process remains the Foundation’s primary vehicle for organizations to receive funding. Additionally, over the last 85 years, El Pomar has either developed or been entrusted with the stewardship of a number of other funds, as well as presenting merit grants in each region recommended by Trustees and regional council members. Competitive applications are accepted on a rolling basis.

The Sally Beck Fund supports organizations providing direct care to equines, therapeutic riding programs, equine education programs and equine-related disaster response programs.

The Wildland Fire Fund assists with immediate emergency needs of volunteer firefighting agencies and first responders throughout the state of Colorado. Started in 2002 in response to the Hayman Fire, the Wildland Fire Fund has awarded more than $6 million in grants over 20 years.

To view a full listing of El Pomar’s funds and grant making areas, please visit our website at https://www.elpomar.org/grant-making/
El Pomar Foundation is one of the largest and oldest private foundations in Colorado. El Pomar contributes approximately $25 million annually through in the areas of arts and culture, civic and community initiatives, education, health and human services, as well as community stewardship and leadership development programs to support Colorado nonprofit organizations. Spencer and Julie Penrose founded El Pomar in 1937 with the mission to enhance, encourage and promote the current and future well-being of the people of Colorado.

###