

Elevating Leadership Development (ELD) Program Scholarship Process

Before the program

1. Complete the community leadership development program (Center for Creative Leadership Community Leadership Program, Leadership Pikes Peak, Leadership Pueblo or Colorado Springs Leadership Institute) application.
2. Once you are accepted into the community leadership development program, complete El Pomar's ELD scholarship application and return it to the Vice President of Opportunity and Outreach and the Program Coordinator. Applications will be distributed to the ELD Scholarship Review Committee. Applications are available online:
<https://www.elpomar.org/programs/elevating-leadership-development/scholarships-for-leadership-programs/>
3. Once you are accepted into the community leadership development program of your choice and selected for the ELD scholarship, El Pomar Foundation will provide full tuition directly to the community leadership development program office.

After the program

1. After completing the community leadership development program, you are required to send a final report to Vice President of Opportunity and Outreach, and the ELD Program Coordinator.
2. You are expected to attend ELD Advisory Council meetings to support the Advisory Council Co-Chairs in recruiting and mentoring prospective ELD participants and community leadership development program scholarship recipients.
3. You are responsible for finding opportunities for involvement in the broader Colorado Springs and Pueblo community. ELD will support your civic involvement by introducing you opportunities and promoting your Online Civic Engagement Profile.
4. Once you complete any of the community leadership development programs supported by El Pomar, you will become eligible for an Online Civic Engagement Profile. You may work with ELD Program Coordinator to get started.
